Summary:

On 06/27/2022 the El Paso Police Department Patrol Officers responded to 5830 Dyer (7-11) in El Paso Texas in reference to a welfare check. A subject(decendent) walked into the 7-11 and met with the clerk. The subject exhibited signs of mental distress and appeared to be experiencing visual and auditory hallucinations. At the subject's request the police were called by the clerk. The Patrol Officers met with the subject who continued to act erratic. It was determined that the subject met the requirements for an emergency detection order. The subject was resisted the Officers attempt to restrain him which led to the subject being tased. The subject was placed in handcuffs and placed in the backseat of a Patrol Unit. Medical assistance was called for the subject due to the tasing. While medical services were present at the scene, the subject experienced a medical episode and stopped breathing. Medical services began life saving techniques and transported the subject to University Medical Center. The subject was pronounced dead at 0147hrs. by Dr. Patek.
