Summary:

On May 22, 2025, the Houston Police Department South Gessner Tactical (TAC) Unit received a FLOCK alert indicating a stolen vehicle within their district. Officers initiated a search and located the unoccupied vehicle in the Walmart parking lot located at 11242 South Gessner Road.

While undercover officers maintained surveillance, the decedent entered the vehicle and drove away. Officers followed the vehicle until marked HPD patrol unit attempted a traffic stop. The suspect failed to stop, resulting in a vehicle pursuit.

During the pursuit, the decedent continued to evade marked HPD units operating with lights and sirens. The decedent eventually collided with another vehicle, ejecting the driver from the vehicle. The impact caused the stolen vehicle to roll over and strike a power pole, trapping the decedent inside due to the severe damage to the vehicle.

The driver of the vehicle struck by the decedent was transported to a hospital, where he was later pronounced deceased. While the Houston Fire Department worked to extract the decedent from the wreckage, the decedent retrieved a firearm and fatally shot himself.

Autopsy was completed. The Manner of Death was ruled Suicide.
