Summary of Incident

Summary of How the Death Occurred: (max. 30,000 characters)

Summary:

Mark King was brought to the Hunt County Jail by the West Tawakoni Police Department on 12/09/2019. West Tawakoni Officer advised he believed King was suicidal so King was placed on suicide watch. King was seen by Transicare on 12/09/2019. Transicare advised to move King to observation. At 5:10pm a cell check was done and King was standing at the door of his cell (Observation # 263). At 5:17 pm, Officer Moody was checking on another inmate in the cell next to King. Officer Moody went into the cell to check on King and found him unresponsive. A Code Blue call was put out and emergency life saving measures were taken by jail staff. AMR arrived and transported King to Hunt Regional Medical Center.

Sgt. Lunsford stated approximately thirty minutes before the Code Blue call he was standing at the door speaking with King. Sgt. Lunsford advised King was asking him who the lady in the trash can was. Sgt. Lunsford stated there was no one in the area that King was talking about.

Sgt. Lunsford also advised that King had been taken to court on this date, however he was brought back to the jail due to the fact he believed he was seeing his mother and brother at the courthouse. Sgt. Lunsford advised the individuals King believed he was seeing were not present at the courthouse.

Medical Examiner did advise there was no trauma to King's body that would have caused his death, results are pending toxicology.
