Summary:

On 1/10/21 at about 5:40pm Officers were dispatched to a residence in the 1600blk of Carrolton Ave in Killeen, Bell County, Texas, in reference to a domestic disturbance involving a suspect with some known mental health issues. The first officer arrived and made contact with family members inside the residence, and then stepped outside to await the arrival of back up officers before making direct contact with the suspect.

The suspect exited the residence and attempted to attack the officer, who gave multiple commands for him to stop. The officer attempted to create physical distance from the suspect, who continued to advance. The officer used his Taser, and the suspect fell to the ground. Despite officer commands the suspect was able to remove the Taster prongs and got up again advancing on the officer in an attempt to attack him.

The officer continued to back away on the snow covered frozen ground until the suspect was within an arms length and continuing to try and attack the officer. The officer also gave repeated verbal commands and warnings to stop. The officer discharged his handgun as the suspect attempted to strike him.

The suspect was given immediate first aid and taken to a local hospital, where he later died.

The incident was investigated by the Killeen Police Department Internal Affairs, and the Texas Rangers.
